FAFSA & ORSAA

The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and the Oregon Student Aid Application (ORSAA) are the two primary financial aid applications for students pursuing a higher education degree.

Students can only complete the FAFSA if they are a U.S. citizen or an eligible non-citizen. The ORSAA serves as an Oregon alternative to the FAFSA for students who have undocumented status, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) status, or Temporary Protected Status (TPS). Students with a valid visa and international students with a valid visa are not eligible to complete the FAFSA or the ORSAA. If eligible, students should fill out either the FAFSA or the ORSAA, not both.
